3. Holiday Party: The holiday party was successful with many Unit members saying it was the best ever. The pre-registration system worked well and contributed to the success of the event. The Unit raised $22,885 for Homeward Bound, which with David Smith's double match, made a gift of $68,655 to Homeward Bound of Marin.

For next year, it was noted:

32 was a comfortable number of tables.

consideration will be given to a different configuration for the food tables to avoid bottlenecks at the meat station.

timing of the event may be moved up half an hour to allow more time for lunch.

many non Unit members objected to paying card fees. The fact card fees are waived for Unit members only will be better communicated.

specific assignments for clean up crew will be made.

a 299'er section will be offered if sufficient interest.

4. President's Report: Henry Kingdon takes over directing Sunday Unit games in January 2019 and has suggested changes to how the provision of food for Unit games and clean up is handled. A sub committee of Hilde, Bill, Tracey and Melanie was formed to review this issue. It will report back to the Board with recommendations by February 20. In the meantime, Unit members will provide food for Unit games: Judy (January 27); Gail (February 3) and (tentatively) Mimsy (February 24).
